Mr. Bayard, does the Chair decide that a motion to adjourn to a day certain, or to fix the day to which the Senate shall adjourn, is not debatable? The Chair so decides ... 97
Mr. Merrimon, that a report presented is not in order, that a subcommittee of a committee has no right to make a report, and that the committee itself has no power to empower a subcommittee to make a report directly to the Senate. Any report that has been agreed to by a subcommittee must be submitted to the committee recognized by the Senate, and that committee must act upon it and determine whether it shall be submitted to the Senate or not. Submitted to the Senate by the Chair, but was withdrawn ... 1191
Mr. Davis, that the report of a committee of the Senate cannot be printed in the Congressional Record without it has first been read at the desk. Sustained by Chair. 1733
Mr. Merrimon, that a proposed amendment to an amendment to the postal appropriation bill is a violation of the rule which provides that no general legislation shall be incorporated into an appropriation bill. The Chair ruled that in Committee of the Whole the Senate agreed to a certain amount and like service embraced in the amendment proposed by the Senator from Kansas. Therefore, it is not a new proposition. The amount is not increased, nor is the nature of the service changed. The point of order was not made in Committee of the Whole, and it is too late to make it now. Mr. Merrimon submitted whether the point of order cannot be raised at any time when the Senate wishes. The Chair submitted to the Senate whether the amendment to the amendment is relevant under the rule, and the Senate decided that it was ... 1743

FERRY, THOMAS W.—points of order ruled on, made by—Cont'd.
Mr. Edmunds, that the Senate cannot do anything, not even take a recess, after having received a decision from the electoral commission but meet the House in joint convention. The Chair had decided that no legislative business is in order 1473
Mr. Davis, that it would be in order to propose an amendment to an amendment. The Chair ruled that the amendment could not be entertained, unless the Senator would move to strike out and use different language 1711
Mr. Edmunds, that the resolutions of the House in respect to the memory of the late Speaker, although not legislative business, cannot be considered by the Senate until the count of the electoral votes is completed, except when the commission is sitting. The Chair submitted the question whether the Senate would allow the consideration of these obituary resolutions, but before the vote was taken the motion was withdrawn 1897
Mr. Edmunds, that a resolution providing for the reception of testimony concerning the electoral vote of South Carolina is not in order. The adoption of the abstract principle that it is lawful to receive testimony is not in order upon the reversing or affirming of the judgment of the commission. Submitted by the Chair to the Senate, considered, and the resolution decided out of order 1893, 1894
Mr. Windom, that an amendment offered to an appropriation bill which has not been reported by any committee and contains new legislation is not in order. The Chair ruled that the point of order was well taken.. 2107

resolutions and orders offered in the Senate, concerning the—
by Mr. Sargent, that the decision of the commission upon the electoral vote of the State of Oregon stand as the judgment of the Senate, the objections made thereto to the contrary notwithstanding. Considered and agreed to 1888, 1897 by Mr. Wallace, that the vote of W. H. Odell, and the vote of J. C. Cartwright, cast for Rutherford B. Hayes, of Ohio, for President of the United States, and for William A. Wheeler, of New York, for Vice-President of the United States, are the votes provided for by the Constitution of the United States, and that the two votes aforesaid should be counted, and none other, from the State of Oregon. Considered and withdrawn 1892–1896 by Mr. Cockrell, that inasmuch as J. W. Watts was ineligible by the terms of the Constitution to the office of elector for the State of Oregon, and W. H. Odell and J. C. Cartwright were the only electors duly appointed by the State of Oregon, and their votes only should be counted, and the decision of the electoral commission should stand as the judgment of the Senate only so far as their decision sustains the votes cast by said Odell and Cartwright.
